Cigar Manufacturer Tells About Paying Bribes To Ingham.

SCHEME RELATED IN COURT.

Trial of a Former United States District Attorney and His Partner Charged With Attempting to Bribe a Secret Service Man

Philadelphia, April 27.—Former United States District Attorney Ellery P. Ingham and Harvey K. Newitt, who was Ingham's assistant, were arraigned before United States Commissioner Edmunds on the charge of attempting to bribe a secret service operative, William J. McManus, in connection with the Jacobs-Kendig-Taylor-Bredell revenue stamp counterfeiting conspiracy.

William L. Kendig, the Lancaster tobacco manufacturer, was the first witness. He identified Mr. Ingham, and said he first met him on Jan. 31. At that time witness said he (witness) was making counterfeit revenue stamps of the denomination of 50 cigars. William M. Jacobs, he said, was associated with him in this business. He said also that Arthur Taylor had engraved the plates, with the assistance of Baldwin S. Bredell.

Kendig said on the occasion of his first visit to Mr. Ingham's office he had questioned Mr. Ingham regarding the latter's acquaintance with Secret Service Operatives Burns and McManus, asking the lawyer whether or not he thought they were corrupt or corruptible. Ingham, witness said, demanded a retainer and received $50. Kendig then detailed to Ingham, he said, the whole story of the bogus revenue stamps, and also informed him that he and Jacobs were in possession of the "Monroe head," a counterfeit silver certificate.

Witness said he told Ingham that he believed the secret service agents were after him and Jacobs, and he wanted to find some way of forestalling them, even to paying the agents a certain sum for two years, if necessary.

Ingham asked for time to consider the case. He told the witness that he knew a boy who was a "natural born sneak," and would employ him to learn if the story witness told was true. Kendig gave him $15 for the boy's expenses.

About Feb. 5 witness again saw Ingham, and he asked for $500 as an additional fee. Witness gave him $250 on account and money for the boy's expenses.

On Feb. 11 Jacobs accompanied Kendig to Mr. Ingham's office. Jacobs asked Ingham if he really believed Burns and McManus were corrupt. He said he thought McManus was. Ingham previously mentioned Richard J. Lennon, an ex-police magistrate, as being likely to approach McManus.

Four days later Ingham told witness his plan for reaching McManus. It consisted of taking the detective to the Union league, treating him to a dinner and wine, when the secret service man might become communicative. Ingham asked the witness what amount of money he could pay if the secret service men were held off for a year. Witness said he and Jacobs could contribute about $3,000 a month.

On a later occasion, Feb. 18, Mr. Ingham informed Kendig that he had a friend who would approach McManus, but he must have $500 in advance, and $500 immediately after he had completely his work. Kendig paid Ingham $500 for this young man.

Up to that time Harvey K. Newitt had not been known in the case. Judge Butler had resigned from the bench of the United States court, and Kendig inquired of Mr. Ingham who was likely to be his successor. Ingham answered that Newitt, his law-partner, was a possible candidate.

Witness further testified that he was summoned to Mr. Ingham's residence on Feb. 26. Ingham told him the man, designated as No. 3, had met Mr. McManus, but nothing had been accomplished. On March 7 Kendig was informed by Mr. Ingham that No. 3 had seen Agent McManus.

The witness said he had learned that the secret service was investigating, and that he so told Ingham.

Ingham, he said, told him that McManus wanted $500 a month, but that Burns insisted on $1,000. Then, he said, he would require $500. For this Jacobs and Kendig were guaranteed immunity from interference for 30 days succeeding each payment. On that day witness paid into Ingham's hands $2,400.

The next payment, he said, was made to Ingham on March 11, and was $1,100. Ingham had been told that Deputy Collector Downey had been bribed, and that there need be no fear from the Lancaster end. On April 9 witness made another payment of $3,000 to Ingham, and Kendig was told that $2,000 would be paid to McManus and Burns on the following day. Kendig at this time demanded the name of the unknown go-between, designated as "No. 3," but Ingham declined to disclose his identity.

He said, however, that Kendig would be protected in the event of anything happening to him (Ingham). The hearing was then adjourned.

DEADLY TORNADO.

Three Persons Reported to Be Killed and Others Injured.

Onawa, Ia., April 27.—A tornado swept the farming country 20 miles of here. The killed are said to be: Hans Severson, farmer; boy named Perrin, and an unknown man.

John Amerston, was carried a half mile and dropped into the river, but escaped alive.

The house of Peter Peterson, Amerston and Hans Severson were blown to pieces, as were also the other buildings on their farms.

A buggy belonging to Mr. Kinsley of Ute was blown away and has not yet been found.

The house of George Ferrin, living three miles southeast of Ute, was totally demolished. A boy 10 years old was killed and Mr. and Mrs. Ferrin and five daughters are not expected to live.

WILL REST.

Lawton's Division Is Worn Out by Tramping Through Swamps.

Manilla, April 27.—General Lawton's advance has been a remarkable demonstration of the resistless energy which characterizes all his undertakings. The last troops forming his column only reached Norzagaray.

The men were badly played out, as during the past two days they have dragged bullock carts over roadless jungles and through swamps, cutting their own way for miles. They will rest three days and then, with Colonel Summers' command, will resume the march westward, co-operating with General MacArthur's forces in the important enterprise.

General MacArthur's division crossed the Rio Grande and advanced on Apalit, completely routing the flower of the insurgent army.

Kautz Is Admonished.

Washington, April 27.—It has been felt proper to admonish Admiral Kautz to be more careful either in writing such letters as that published from Cincinnati or in guarding his letters from publicity, and a letter of that character was addressed to him. Theoretically a letter addressed under the circumstances attending the Kautz letter may be regarded as strictly private, yet, practically, the writer must accept the consequences that would follow the publication. In the case of Justice Chambers, whose brother made public a letter criticizing Germans in Samoa, the effect will certainly be injurious to the chief justice. Though the letter was undoubtedly a private communication, yet the state department was bound to take notice of the fact that this publication had done much to injure the usefulness of the chief justice and to render his retention in the office after the reconstruction of the island government impracticable.

Englishmen Glad.

London, April 26.—The Daily Mail, in reference to the American victory in the Philippines says: "The Americans are to be congratulated warmly upon the victory which they have won at Calumpit. Now, at last, it looks as though the back of the Filipino resistance had been broken, and Englishmen will be particularly glad of this fact, as they alone appreciate to the full the difficulties with which their cousins have had to contend. If Aguinaldo has a head on his shoulders he will see that the time has come for him to submit to the inevitable."

Adverse to Expensive Churches.

St. Louis, April 27.—The national triennial convention of the German Evangelical Lutheran synod is holding a 10-day conference here. Rev. H. Schwan of Cleveland is acting president of the convention, which is attended by 600 delegates. In his opening address President Schwan reviewed the work of the church during the past three years. One of his special points was that the tendency toward spending so much money on fine church buildings and the consequent drain to keep up the running expenses was ill-advised.

Offers Another Gift.

Richmond, Ky., April 27.—President W. G. Frost of Berea college is in receipt of a letter from D. K. Pearsons, the Chicago philanthropist, offering another gift of $50,000 to the endowment fund of the Berea college on the same conditions as the former gift.

von Huebner Departs.

Auckland, New Zealand, April 27.—Von Huebner, the former German lieutenant, who organized the forces of Mataafa, has left Samoa for the Tonga islands.

MONUMENT OF GRANT.

Equestrian Statue In Honor of the Warrior Unveiled.

TRIBUTES TO HIS MEMORY.

In the Presence of President McKinley and His Cabinet the Ceremonies Are Performed—Many People Visit the Raleigh.

Philadelphia, April 27.—The final details of the ceremonies incident to the unveiling of the Grant statue in Fairmount park were completed and everything was in readiness for the moment when Miss Rosemary Sartoris, granddaughter of the hero, loosened the folds of the snow-white cloth which hid the statue from public gaze.

The clouds of the morning lifted and the sun shone bright and warm. Long before noon the tide of travel began to move towards the central point of interest, the broad and picturesque East Park River drive, which the statue overlooks.

In the hands of nearly every person was carried a small American flag, and throughout the city homes and places of business flung the stars and stripes to the breeze.

During the morning the cruiser Raleigh rivalled the statue as the object of interest. Crowds thronged the docks along the river front, or added to the wealth of boatmen and ferry companies, in their desire to get a glimpse of the dull leaden sides and shining brass works of this famous fighter.

The trim little cruiser was gallily decorated in honor of the occasion, and a few visitors were permitted to go aboard at intervals.

The Ceremonies.

The ceremonies took place in the presence of President McKinley, members of the cabinet, representatives of foreign governments and a large gathering of distinguished citizens, guests of honor.

Prominent among those participating was Mrs. Grant, widow of the general, and other members of the family. The exercises proper began with the arrival of the presidential party. The first troop, Philadelphia City cavalry, formed the guard of honor from the station to the Hotel Bellevue.

Promptly at 2 p. m. the City troop reassembled and escorted the party to the reviewing stand in front of the monument. The president and members of the cabinet occupied the leading carriages. The carriages drove over the route of the parade, and upon arrival at the monument the president was received with the national salute of 21 guns. Simultaneously the guns of the Raleigh in the Delaware river also fired a salute.

Schley and Wheeler at Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, April 27.—Admiral W. S. Schley and General Joseph Wheeler, who spoke at the Grant banquet of the American club, arrived from Washington, and despite the early hour, the distinguished guests were greeted at the station by a crowd of several hundred. After breakfast at the Hotel Schenley, the party, which had been augmented by the arrival of Colonel A. L. McClure of Philadelphia and General W. J. Hulings of Oil City, visited the armor plate plant at Homestead and the Firth-Sterling Projectile company at Demmler, Pa.

TWO MEN

Rescued From a Dismasted Sailboat by the Transport Comal.

New York, April 27.—The United States transport Comal, Captain Evans, arrived from Cuba with 64 passengers and 150 discharged soldiers. Among the former were John Gary Evans, ex-Governor of South Carolina; Estes G. Rathbone, director general of the postal system of Cuba; Lieutenant Colonel Ellis, Majors J. G. Evans, Thrift and Knapp, Captains H. L. Street, Philster, Cowan, Cole and Rodgers, Lieutenants Griggs and Boogstaver, Mitchell, Blow, Sohn, Kilburn, Wallace, Holbrook and Hardenburg, and Lieutenant Brown with a guard of 10 men, who are assigned to the steamer.

Captain Evans of the Comal reports that on Monday last, April 24, about 45 miles north of Jupiter light, he sighted a small sailboat dismasted and flying the American flag, inverted as a signal of distress. Two men were seen to be making frantic efforts to attract attention.

The two men were taken on board the transport and brought to this port. They were J. K. Bonfield and J. Kehew of Miami, Fla. They said they had sailed from Miami in a small boat named Rambler, intending to go to Nassau, but bad weather coming on the craft was unable to overcome it. The mast was snapped off at the deck and the bedding and other heavy material were thrown overboard to lighten the craft.

After three days drifting about, during which all knowledge of their bearings was lost, the Comal hove in sight.

Message From Kautz.

Washington, April 27.—The following cablegram has been received at the navy department from Admiral Kautz: "Auckland, New Zealand, April 13.—The receipt of telegram of March 21 and April 2 is acknowledged. Coal can not be obtained at Apia; must be ordered from Auckland. Everything is quiet at Apia. I am not aggressive on Mataafa rebels; but I am protecting United States consulate, United States property and the Samoan government as established by the decision of the chief justice of the supreme court." The navy department in a note to the above announces that it has already completed arrangements for supplying coal to Admiral Kautz, and it will soon be at his command.

Major Dodge's Job.

Washington, April 27.—Major Francis S. Dodge, paymaster, has been ordered to proceed from New York to Havana, Cuba, with the necessary funds for the payment of the troops in the division of Cuba. The commanding general, department of the east, will furnish a suitable escort for the funds. On arrival at Havana Major Dodge will turn over the funds to the chief paymaster, division of Cuba, and will then report to the commanding general of that division to relieve Major George R. Smith, paymaster, of his duties in charge of the payment of the $3,000,000 to the Cuban army. On completion of this duty Major Dodge will return to this city.

FATE OF MRS. GEORGE

Now Rests With the Twelve Jurors Who Heard the Evidence.

CHARGE OF JUDGE TAYLOR.

In His Charge He Says If There Is Any Doubt as to Guilt of Accused, She Should Be Acquitted of the Crime.

Canton, O., April 27.—What may be the last day of the trial of Mrs. George for the murder of George D. Saxton began with a resumption by Prosecuting Attorney Pomerene of his closing argument for the prosecution.

He continued a review of the testimony, first paying attention to the time of various incidents and the alibi attempted on behalf of the accused.

He said no man is all bad, and that many have reason to remember George D. Saxton for his good qualities, for his charity and for his bounty. There is no word in the record to show it, he said, and no one can say that George D. Saxton had ever insulted a virtuous and upright woman.

Mr. Pomerene concluded his review of the case at 11:12. The judge immediately began his charge to the jury.

The delivery of Judge Taylor's charge to the jury occupied 35 minutes and was completed at 11:50.

The jury was immediately retired to the jury room, and can not again be separated until a verdict is reached, or the court is convinced that an agreement can not be reached. In Ohio the jurors are allowed to go to their homes and be separated during all the stages of the case up to the delivery of the charge.

The points in the charge bearing specially on this case, and aside from the usual form, were as follows: That Mrs. George has been suspected and charged with the perpetration of a crime does not tend, in any degree, to show her guilt or remove from her this presumption of innocence which the law casts about her. Under this indictment you may find the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree, murder in the second degree, of manslaughter, of assault and battery, or of assault; or you may find her not guilty at all.

This is not a mere discretion, but it is your duty to return such a verdict as the testimony under the law, as the court has given it to you, demands.

Evidence of the alleged relations of the defendant and the deceased, George D. Saxton, since 1889, and prior to the death of said Saxton, has been permitted to go to you, not because the said relations of said Saxton and the defendant are any excuse or justification or defense of the offense of killing of deceased by the defendant. The fact that the defendant did not testify and the attempt to prove an alibi are not to be considered against her.

Anti-Trust Law Upheld.

Little Rock, April 27.—Judge Joseph Martin of the circuit court rendered a decision upholding the constitutionality of the anti-trust law, but limits its force to offenses committed in the state of Arkansas. The attorney general construed the law to cover rate making by insurance companies in Arkansas or elsewhere, thus excluding the old line companies from the state. Judge Martin holds that the state has a right to exclude foreign corporations and prohibit them from doing business in the state, but can not punish corporations or individuals for violations of the penal code committed in other states.

Beheaded Before He Was Dead.

Auckland, New Zealand, April 27.—Particulars of the fighting in Samoa, contained in the advices received from here from Apia, under date of April 18, show that the battle between the friendly natives and the rebels took place at Vallelo, and that the latter lost 100 men in killed and wounded. Further details of the deaths of Ensign L. R. Monaghan of the United States cruiser Philadelphia and Lieutenant P. V. Lansdale of the same vessel have been received. They show that Monaghan was beheaded before he was dead.

Admiral Howell Relieved.

Washington, April 27.—Rear Admiral Howell has been relieved as senior member of the naval retiring board. He will be succeeded by Admiral Schley, heretofore a member of the naval examining board. Captain Cook, formerly commander of the Brooklyn, and who was recalled to this country by the recent death of his wife, has been ordered to duty as a member of the naval examining board. Commander W. W. Meade has been ordered to the command of the Brooklyn.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

At a meeting held by the Democratic State Executive Committee in the city of Lexington on March 8th, 1899, it was ordered that a State convention be held in Louisville on Wednesday, June 21st, 1899, for the purpose of nominating Democratic candidates for State officers to be voted for November 7th, 1899, the convention to be called to order at 11 o'clock a. m.

Delegates to said State convention shall be chosen at county mass conventions to be held at the various county court houses in counties having but one legislative district, of which due notice shall be given by the various County Committees. In counties having more than one legislative district there shall be a convention for each legislative district to be held at some convenient point to be indicated by the Chairman of the Legislative District Committee, who shall advertise in the local papers the location for said convention at least ten days prior to the date fixed by this committee. Said county and legislative district conventions shall be held at 2 o'clock p. m., standard time, on June 17th, 1899. Said conventions shall be called to order by the Chairman of the respective County or Legislative District Committees.

The basis of representation of each county to the said State convention shall be one delegate for each 200 votes and fraction of 100 or more votes cast for the head of the Democratic Electoral ticket in the Presidential election in 1896, provided that each county shall have at least one delegate vote. All known Democrats and others who supported W. J. Bryan for President and those who pledge themselves to support the nominees of said State convention shall be entitled to participate in the county or legislative district conventions.

P. P. JOHNSTON, Chairman.
R. Owen Cochran, Secretary.

UNDER the apportionment of delegates for the Republican State convention Mason County will be entitled to 23 and Lewis 21. The same basis will of course be used for the Senatorial convention, and Br'er Davis is no doubt chuckling.

WE were told a few weeks ago that Mr. Dickinson had gone to Europe with all the documents to secure that little sum of $50,000,000 for the construction of the Black Diamond. It seems that he forgot something, however. The Dover News says:

Another cablegram has been received from Hon. T. C. Dickinson calling for some papers of the Kentucky line of the Black Diamond needed to close up the deal in London. These papers were promptly forwarded and will reach London by first steamer. Unless something altogether unforeseen presents itself, this will complete all papers asked for by the syndicate, and doubtless contracts will be duly signed at an early day.

A STATE FAIR

Will Be Advocated in the Next Kentucky Legislature—An Appropriation of $50,000 Will Be Asked.

FRANKFORT, Ky., April 25.—A number of progressive young farmers have already been nominated for the Legislature in this State, and as their election is a foregone conclusion they are already discussing the passage of a bill providing for an annual State fair, fashioned after the Missouri and Illinois State fairs, that are kept up by State aid. Abram Renick, who will be the Representative from Clark County, will be one of the prime movers in the matter. He says Kentucky stock owners are now compelled to exhibit their stock in other States, whereas if Kentucky had a State fair her breeders of fine horses and cattle could exhibit at home and secure top prices for stock without the expense of shipping to distant points.

It is likely that an appropriation of $50,000 will be asked to pay the first cost of establishing the fair, and an annual appropriation of $10,000 thereafter for premiums and operating expenses.

A Mighty Clean Show.

One commendable feature of the Wallace Shows is the entire absence of the usual riff-raff that follows in the wake of big circus institutions. A careful inspection of the entire outfit failed to find a single gambling device of a catch-penny affair in operation. Mr. Wallace and his manager C. N. Thompson are to be congratulated upon so regulating matters that it is not necessary for a visitor to keep his hand on his pocket-book and the other on the watch. Reports from the neighboring towns show the state of affairs where ever the shows have visited—Osage (La.) News.

IMMENSE CAPITAL

Is Back of the Proposed Railroad Combine in Which the C. and O. Figures.

New York, April 26.—The combined capital of the proposed consolidation of the C., C., C. and St. L., Chicago and Northwestern, Chesapeake and Ohio, Monon, C., H. and D., New York Central and Lake Shore is $367,652,804.

The total mileage is 13,859 miles. By the terms of the deal the Monon is to be operated as an independent line until the necessary legislation is obtained in Indiana to merge it into the Big Four system.

The proposed Fig Four combination in Wall street is supposed to include the Big Four and Monon, Chicago and Northwestern, Chicago, Hamilton and Dayton, and Chesapeake and Ohio railroads. Vanderbilt and Morgan are in Europe now.

While the impression has been general that the Vanderbilts own the Big Four, it is said that they really only have an amount of stock that permits them to be in joint majority with other interests.

It is said they are particularly anxious to get absolute control, so as to divert the Western business that is now going to and from the East from Cincinnati over the C. and O.

The remedy is so cheap that it should be adopted by all.

A FISHING party composed of Major L. C. Norman, of Frankfort, Dr. Edwin Matthews of this city, Captain Carroll Power and Dr. Robert Dudley, of Flemingsburg, returned from the mouth of Fox Creek Wednesday night after a delightful week in tents at that place. They report having caught a good many bass, "drummers," red horse, cats, &c. They caught only about fifty pounds of eatable fish, but had plenty of fun and sport and a good time generally.

Nature's Carpet

Is becoming more and more beautiful each day. Unfortunately Carpets are not like grass. When the carpet is old it must be replaced. The better the new carpet the longer its good looks and wear. The difference between cheap carpets and good carpets shows itself this way. Cheap ones wear about three years, good ones seven or eight. Why not have satisfaction instead of disaffection? Get your next carpet here. The Government stamp on a dollar assures us it is worth one hundred cents. Our price ticket on a carpet assures the purchaser that it is worth every cent of its cost. You can see the carpets in sample or in roll, just as you prefer—have them hand or machine sewed as you elect. We can't print a full price list—haven't space—but it will be our pleasure to give it to you if you call. Two items are culled for mention. Our large carpet selling this season places us in a position to offer some inviting bargains in single pieces. In one line of Brussels carpet we have ten patterns we can sell at 75c., regular price was 90c. We name only one condition—that we make them now. On the other hand we'll hold them and lay them at your pleasure. Our second bargain is also in the Brussels carpets. Seven patterns to be sold at 50c. a yard instead of its full value, 69c. Why? It was so late last fall when the lot arrived only part of it was sold. We want to dispose of the remainder now. It's a genuine bargain chance you won't pass if you investigate.

THE funeral of the late Mrs. Wilhelmina Joergel will occur Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the family residence, Rev. Dr. John Barbour officiating. Interment in the Maysville Cemetery.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with typhoid fever that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1. Trial bottles free at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store; every bottle guaranteed.

The Why and the Wherefore.

We have been making such strong comparisons between our Martin clothing and other makes that it is but fair we should tell you why we claim it to be the best. Here are the principal points upon which we base our belief.

1. Symmetry of shape.
2. Hand-tacked pockets.
3. New-style, finely finished inside pocket which never gapes open.
4. Hand-padded collars.
5. Well-shaped collars and lapels.
6. Hand-made buttonholes.
7. Linen stays to support pockets.
8. Unstitched sleeve and large outlet of cuff and sleeve lining to permit of sleeve being easily lengthened with its own material if necessary.
9. "Stout" and "long" sizes, adapting this clothing to the wants of every man who is not actually deformed.

Notice particularly the shape of the lapels, which you will find in no other ready-made and very rarely in custom work. Also the artistic manner in which sleeves are shaped and finished.

The trousers of a Martin suit are in exact correspondence with the coat, shapely, well-made and perfect-fitting. We cordially invite you to come in and see our new spring styles.

MR. LITTLETON HILL.

A Well Known Citizen in a Critical Condition as a Result of Cerebral Hemorrhage.

Mr. L. Hill, one of Maysville's well known business men, is critically ill at his home on West Second street, as the result of a hemorrhage of the brain.

Mr. Hill has not been enjoying his accustomed health for some time. For a week or so he had been suffering more than usual, and had been under medical treatment, but was still able to attend to business.

Thursday morning he went to his grocery on Market street, and when his son-in-law, Mr. Will Heiser, stopped at the store an hour or so later, he found Mr. Hill feeling much worse. The latter remarked that he would go up stairs and lie down for a while. Mr. Heiser tried to persuade him to go home but without success.

Shortly before 11 o'clock Mr. Heiser stopped at the store again. The clerk on going upstairs to call Mr. Hill found him unconscious. Physicians were hastily summoned and succeeded in partially arousing the stricken man, but only for a short time. He was removed to his home where he lingers in an extremely critical condition, with but little hope of his recovery.

His daughter, Mrs. A. S. Bliss, and his sister, Mrs. Hough, of Cincinnati, arrived last evening in response to telegrams announcing his critical illness.

Mr. Hill has long been engaged in the grocery business in Maysville and has a host of friends throughout the city and county who regret to learn of his illness, and would rejoice at his recovery.

THE FEAST OF BARGAINS

In Clothing, Men's and Boys' Shoes and Men's Furnishings, set before the people, through Hechinger's retiring-from-business sale, has awakened an interest with the buying community that the conventional Clothing sales advertisement make impossible. It's a positive fact that customers from distances as far as fifty miles from Maysville are taking advantage of this sale. It is known that the stock consists of only first-class merchandise, and when considered that the reduction of prices enables the public to buy the high class goods Hechinger & Co. carry for less than ordinary goods sell elsewhere, it is no wonder that the storerooms are daily crowded. Thousands of dollars' worth of goods that were contracted for before Mr. Hechinger's conclusion to retire from business, are daily arriving. They share the same fate of those already in stock. They will be marked at prices that will make them sell.

On Wednesday our "HOPKINS"

The healthy old man wears his gray hairs like a silver crown. What if he be three score and ten if there is still fire in his eye, firmness in his step, command in his voice and wisdom in his counsel? He commands love and reverence. Yet how few wear the mantle of age with dignity. Dim eyed, querulous of speech, halting in step, childish in mind, they "lag suspicious on the stage," dragging out the lag end of life in a simple existence. The secret of a healthy old age is a healthy middle age. The man who takes care of his stomach, who keeps his body properly nourished, will find that the body does not fail him in old age. The great value of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery lies in the preservation of the working power of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. From this center is distributed the nourishment of the whole body, the salt for the blood, the lime for the bones, phosphates for the brain and nerves. A sound stomach means a sound man. A man who keeps his stomach sound by the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" will wear the crown of gray hairs as befits a monarch, with dignity and ease.

Rogers Versus Farmers' Mutual Aid.
In reversing this case the Court of Appeals says:
First—Where the policy in a Mutual Company provided that members might make additional insurance provided the aggregate insurance did not exceed two-thirds of the value of the property, but did not provide for a forfeiture in the event the limit should be exceeded, and the agent of the company after additional insurance in excess of the limit had been taken told insured that it did not forfeit the policy, and the company assessed him to pay losses subsequently occurring, it is estopped to claim a forfeiture.
Second—Notice to a solicitor authorized to issue and deliver policies for the company was notice to the company.
Third—An allegation that defendant company had notice of the additional insurance is good, though the allegation of notice to the agent be bad.
